SB ✱ The Accident ✨ Hangmuk

I had a bad day today. Jumping down the stairs was a bad and stupid idea.

Today, I was playing at the park at night with my elder sister. I was running up and down the stairs when I thought of jumping off the stairs. My elder sister asked, 'What are you doing?' Then I jumped off the stairs and broke my arm. I cried loudly and my sister said, 'Are you crazy? You could have an even more serious injury!' Then she told my mom that I jumped off the stairs and broke my arm. My mom was shocked and said, 'Are you okay? We must go to the hospital now!' We rushed to the hospital to see the doctor, but luckily my arm wasn't fractured. It was just badly sprained. I was relieved that it wasn't serious. The doctor said, 'You ~~must~~ take a rest for a few days.' He even gave me a lollipop to cheer me up!

I should not jump off the stairs since it was dangerous. I was lucky that I didn't get a serious injury!
