A day I will never forget

I will never forget the day when I and my family went to AIA European Carnival and played a prank on my uncle. He visited Hong Kong for a week. He lived in Singapore with his mum. Going to the carnival and playing a prank on my uncle were an enjoyable experience.

It happened in Central Pier at night about three months ago. My mum wanted to show my uncle the carnival and he was interested so we went there. At the entrance of the carnival, we took a photo next to the Hong Kong Ferris Wheel. I knew all the rides because I searched in the internet before we went there. My uncle and I were the only ones who were brave enough to ride all the dangerous and extreme rides. I wanted to know how brave he was so I tricked him to go to the ferris wheel with me. Actually I made him ride an extreme ride. Once we got in the staff told him not to wear his cap. He was confused but he followed the staff's order. He asked me why and I told him he was about to ride an extreme ride. His eyes grew huge and his mouth opened wide which made me laugh.

After the ride my uncle made a face which made me laugh harder. My auntie was waiting for us because she wanted to show us a video. It was about us riding the ride. We heard the loud scream coming from my uncle. It was a priceless moment.
